

NFSB Benefits from the Generosity of Morgan Stanley

Nutley Family Service Bureau again benefited from the generosity of Morgan Stanley, the New York City based financial services firm. Morgan Stanley encourages volunteer service at charities and rewards employees who invest their time and energy to help non-profits.

Karen Rozansky, Vice President at Morgan's headquarters, was recently rewarded for her volunteer efforts at Nutley Family Service Bureau. Morgan Stanley Foundation donated $6,500 to the Nutley-based agency. This contribution, the eighth awarded to NFSB by the Morgan Stanley Foundation, represents support from all of the business units within Morgan Stanley. Karen's efforts on behalf of the Nutley Family Service Bureau include sitting on the board of trustees, acting as Secretary on the Executive Committee, and volunteering time at the Bureau's Thrift Shop.

"Volunteering at an agency that has been in Nutley for almost 100 years and knowing that NFSB is helping people in our community is very rewarding. It is especially fulfilling to receive recognition from your workplace for time spent helping others," Rozansky said in a statement. "Many in our community are unaware of the special needs and situations that some of our citizens face and it's a good feeling to know that the Bureau is in town to help. I only wish that more people would get involved in the good work that is done by NFSB."

The Nutley Family Service Bureau welcomes volunteers who would like to get involved, as a board trustee, at special fund raising events, or volunteering at the Thrift Shop. The Nutley Family Service Bureau is located at 155 Chestnut Street and the Thrift Shop is at 172 Chestnut Street.
